AMAVASYA SHRAADAS
(Pitru Paksha)

Annual Memorial Service to Honor Our Ancestors
8 am to 8 pm

Hindu Temple priests will be available at the temple to perform annual memorial ceremonies for our devotees during this annual festival for honoring, gratifying and paying homage to the souls and spirits of our ancestors. Shraadh rites are performed during the month of Ashwin during the Krishna Paksha. Shraadha ceremony is considered auspicious and is performed with devout prayers for the peace of our ancestors.

Due to increasing awareness and faith in this special annual ritual to honor our ancestors, Hindu Temple will be scheduling services every half hour during the temple service hours.

(For IN-PERSON Services, MUST WEAR FACE MASKS, Wash Hands and Maintain Physical Distance per the guidelines)

For Shraddhas service details, please call

Pandit Pitamber Dutt Sharma and Ram Bhadra Tripathi (301)445-2165 & (301)434-1000
